THE 2-WEEK STRATEGIC NARRATIVE SPRINT

Your career outran your public presence. In two weeks, we align them.

Known For First Look

AT A GLANCE

WHAT IT IS

For an immediate inflection point: a board search, an unannounced transition, or an enterprise recruitment cycle.

TIME

Two weeks, with sessions set around your calendar. Async: about an hour a week.

INVESTMENT

Investment will be shared in our 20-minute conversation.

WHAT YOU GET

Your Executive Dossier (LinkedIn, executive bio and résumé) and the Calibration.

WHY NOW

Stakeholders are searching either way. Waiting doesn't pause that. It only decides what they find.

THE STRATEGY

- The Narrative Diagnostic: We establish your core leadership thesis: who you are, how you operate, and the specific domain you own.
- The Calibration: A private readout analyzing where your market perception stands today versus where your next seat requires it to be.

WHERE IT SHOWS UP

- The Executive Dossier: Complete narrative reconstruction of your LinkedIn, executive bio and résumé, articulated strictly in your cadence.
- One page: progress you can count, before and after.

HOW IT RUNS

Your LinkedIn, your bio and your site are collateral. The work is narrative architecture and category ownership.

1

Narrative Diagnostic.
The baseline. Auditing the perception gap: how the market, search engines, and enterprise peers perceive you today vs. your institutional impact.

2

The Known For Architecture.
Codifying your executive thesis, board narrative, and industry positioning into an authoritative dossier.

3

Executive Surface Deployment.
Aligning LinkedIn, keynotes, board dossiers, and private advisory assets without personal friction or micromanagement. Every word is yours.

WHAT YOU LEAVE WITH

- You leave knowing who you are as a leader, where you're taking people, and what you're known for. Written down, in your words.
- You leave with the Calibration: where your market perception stands today, and where your next seat requires it to be.
- You leave with your Executive Dossier: your LinkedIn, executive bio and résumé, articulated strictly in your cadence.

The smallest way to start. And the part everything else is built on.
